

MARJA JÄMBECK

JUNIOR WEB
DEVELOPER / DESIGNER

PERSONAL PROFILE

Junior web developer with a strong interest in honing her front-end skills, and to keep learning new and develop into a proper full-stack developer. Wants to learn more front-end technologies (especially React/Vue/Node), and more about UX/service design, usability and accessibility to create innovative app UIs that users have ease to use. Searching my first true ICT-position in working life, while finishing my studies and thesis in JAMK.
